Web scraping assignment - 1

1. What is web scraping. Describe the steps to perform web scraping.

2. Discuss the challenges in performing web scraping.

3. Demonstrate a python web-scraping script using beutifulsoup library for navigating any html file of your choice.

4. Illustrate the difference between loc and iloc function in Python program with a code snippet.

5. Write a python program to create 3x4 array, delete 3rd column and insert new column in the 3rd column. Print the intermediate results.